Activity Title: Emergency First Aid for Schools

Purpose: This course is suitable for those who wish to learn the essentials of First Aid. It should be noted that this course is not acceptable as a qualification for full-time first aiders in places of employment where first aiders are required under the Health and Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981.

Further Details: The activity will

- include advice about resuscitation, unconsciousness, injuries such as wounds and bleeding, playground accidents for children
- provide information about common childhood ailments and infections.

The course will be delivered by a tutor from Mediaid Training Ltd, a company which specialises in training adults in various levels of First Aid. Individual health and fitness are important and participants must not be suffering from any medical condition that would restrict their undertaking of practical work. Participants are advised to wear trousers and will be required to work on the floor for the practical sessions. Participants should arrive 15 minutes before the course starts.

Target Group: Any teacher or non-teaching member of a school/college. This course is NOT sufficient to qualify anybody as a 'First Aider at Work' (see course 09/892a/HS).
